

.000 – Terms and Conditions

In addition to your registration agreement, the .000 Registry-Registrar Agreement (“RRA”) terms and conditions set out here shall apply. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of your registration agreement and the terms set out here, the RRA terms shall prevail.

1. The .000 registration agreement requires the Registered Name Holder to Acknowledge and agree that the Registry reserves the right to deny, cancel or transfer any registration or transaction, or place any domain name(s) on registry lock, hold or similar status, as it deems necessary, in its unlimited and sole discretion: (i) To comply with specifications adopted by any industry group generally recognized as authoritative with respect to the Internet (e.g., RFCs(Request for Comments)), (ii) To correct mistakes made by Registry or any registrar in connection with a domain name registration or (iii) For the non-payment of fees to Registry; and (iv) Registered Name Holder shall defend and hold harmless Registry and its subcontractors, and its and their directors, officers, employees, agents, and affiliates from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and expenses arising out of or relating to, for any reason whatsoever the Registered Name Holder’s domain name registration. It is acknowledged that this indemnification obligation shall survive the termination or expiration of the registration agreement.
2. Further, Registered Name Holders are prohibited from distributing malware, abusively operating botnets, phishing, piracy, trademark or copyright infringement, fraudulent or deceptive practices, counterfeiting or otherwise engaging in activity contrary to applicable law. Violations will be subject to consequences including suspension of the domain name. In compliance with ICANN’s Specification 11 of Registry Registrar Agreement, Registry expressly prohibits the use of domain names that might cause confusion with the Triple Zero Emergency Call Service and restricts the use of such names which might induce confusion with emergency services such as police, fire, emergency etc. The Registered Name Holder is advised to review the .000 Acceptable Use and Anti-Abuse Policy which highlights the same and is herein incorporated by reference.
3. Registered Name Holder further agrees to comply with each of the following requirements:
  - 3.1. ICANN standards, policies, procedures, and practices as may be adopted or amended from time to time;
  - 3.2. Operational standards, policies, procedures, and practices for the Registry TLD established from time to time by Registry in a non-arbitrary manner and applicable to all registrars, including affiliates of Registry and consistent with ICANN’s standards, policies, procedures, and practices and the Registry Agreement. ). Additional or revised Registry operational standards, policies, procedures, and practices for the Registry TLD shall be effective upon thirty days notice by Registry to registrar and
  - 3.3. Public interest commitments (as set forth in Specification 11 to the Registry Agreement, as amended from time to time), community registration policies (if applicable, as set forth in Specification 12 to the Registry Agreement, as amended from time to time) and Government Advisory Committee (“GAC”) safeguards or otherwise published or provided to registrar by Registry from time to time.
