2.1.2 Geographic Names

Without permission from the City of Paris, You must not register geographical names for any subdivision of the Greater area of Paris, its monuments, symbols, local landmarks, or other locally-relevant and iconic names in the Greater area of Paris, including the variations and abbreviations thereof.

2.1.3 Names of Public Authorities and Public Services.

You must not register:

a. Names of Public Authorities at any level, including any variations and abbreviations thereof, or other terms in common use to describe them; or
b. Names directly or indirectly related to a public service for which Public Authorities in the Greater area of Paris have specific responsibilities. These include at least the following services: public order and public safety, public affairs and institutional relations, public health, taxation, economic development and promotion, transportation, urban planning and environmental protection, culture and education, citizen participation and tourism.

The registration of these domain names is reserved for the aforementioned Public Authorities.

2.2 "First come, first served" rule

Unless otherwise provided for in certain registration phases, the registration of domain names under the .paris top-level domain is handled on a "First come, first served" basis, i.e. Registrar requests are processed in chronological order of receipt.
2.3 Syntactic rules

Your .paris domain name shall be in accordance with the syntactic standards established by ICANN and the City of Paris.
Your domain name should in particular contain 3 to 63 characters.
Numbers, letters, hyphens, and all of the characters used in the French language are accepted, with the exception of accented and special characters.

2.4 Reserved names

The Registry Operator can, and, under certain conditions, is required to exclude certain .paris domain names from registration.

ICANN provides a list of reserved domain name categories that the Registry Operator must exclude from registration, except under certain conditions.
These conditions are described in Specification 5 of the Registry Agreement.

2.4.2 Names reserved by the Registry Operator

We reserve, at Our sole discretion:

a. the ability to make certain domain names unavailable for registration, or only allow them to be assigned under certain conditions.
b. the right to determine the time and conditions under which said domain names may be registered and/or how they may be used.
c. the right to publish or not to publish the list of reserved terms.

3. Use of Your .paris domain name

Names which do not meet these requirements include, among others, those whose use may:
* mislead or deceive the public, for instance the geographical place to which the domain refers or the official nature of its origin.
* profit from the reputation of a brand or from any other recognized right to the name in question or to a related name, by causing confusion in the public’s mind.

c. Furthermore, You undertake not to:

   i. use Your .paris domain name in violation of any rights of third-parties, including intellectual property rights.

   v. use your .paris domain name for the sole purpose of selling it, reselling it or transferring it in some manner to applicants. Furthermore, You will not enable, contribute or willingly aid any third party to do so.
   vi. use Your .paris domain name in a manner that may damage or bring into disrepute the name, image or reputation of the City of Paris, its partners and/or the .paris Community.

Unless the lack of compliance is corrected by this deadline, Your .paris domain name may continue to be suspended and/or may be cancelled. In case of suspension and/or cancellation of your .paris domain name under this article, You will not be reimbursed any registry fees.

4.3 We also reserve the right to deny, suspend, modify the status, cancel and/or transfer any registration that We deem necessary:
