

Famous Four – Terms and Conditions

In addition to your registration agreement, the Famous Four Registry-Registrar Agreement (“RRA”) terms and conditions set out here shall apply. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of your registration agreement and the terms set out here, the RRA terms shall prevail.

1. Each registered name holder shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the registry operator and its subcontractors (including the registry back-end services provider) and their respective directors, officers, employees, affiliates and agents of each of them from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable legal fees and expenses, arising out of or relating to the registered name holder’s domain name registration, except due to the registry operator’s negligence, error or omission. This indemnification obligation shall survive the termination or expiration of the registration agreement.
2. Each registered name holder shall:
 - a. comply with ICANN standards, policies, procedures, and practices for which the registry operator has monitoring responsibility in accordance with the registry agreement between the registry operator and ICANN for the operation of the registry TLD, as the same may be amended from time to time (the “Registry Agreement”), or any other arrangement with ICANN.
 - b. comply with all operational standards, policies, procedures, and practices for the registry TLD as set forth in the Registry Agreement and as established from time to time by the registry operator in a non-arbitrary manner and applicable to all registrars, including affiliates of the registrar, and consistent with ICANN standards, policies, procedures, and practices and the registry operator’s Registry Agreement with ICANN, including, in particular, any acceptable use policy, which delineates all the types of activity that define abuse and reserves the right of the registry operator to take appropriate action based on the type of abuse. Additional or revised registry operator operational standards, policies, procedures, and practices for the registry TLD shall be effective upon thirty days’ notice by the registry operator to the registrar.
 - c. submit all permissions, authorisations and confirmations or any other data which are reasonably required by the registry operator or registrar in order to comply with clause (b.) above.
3. Each registered name holder, who is an identified or identifiable person, agrees that the relevant personal data submitted to the registrar as part of the registration process shall be submitted to the registry operator for the following reasons:
 - a. inclusion in the said searchable WHOIS directory providing free public query-based access to the details as required by clauses 1.5 and 1.6 of specification 4 of the Registry Agreement;
 - b. research on an amalgamated statistical basis;

- c. day to day operations of the registry operator, including, email contact by the registry operator with the registered name holder as required by any acceptable use policy;
 - d. to service providers which/who provide legal, accounting, delivery, installation, systems support, escrow, marketing, clearinghouse and other registry services;
 - e. as may be required by law enforcement agencies or a court order or other compulsory operation of law applicable to the registry operator; and
 - f. as may be required by ICANN in accordance with a zone file access request in accordance with specification 4 of the Registry Agreement.
- 4. Registered name holders are prohibited from distributing malware, abusively operating botnets, phishing, piracy, trademark or copyright infringement, fraudulent or deceptive practices, counterfeiting or otherwise engaging in activity contrary to applicable law. The registrant acknowledges that the potential consequences for such activities may include suspension of the domain name. The registry operator reserves the right to take action necessary to deny, cancel, suspend, lock, or transfer any registration in violation of the acceptable use policy.